Services - PCS - Public and Commercial Services Union - is the sixth largest trade union in the UK with nearly 325,000 members (36,000 in Scotland) and organises membership in the civil service throughout the United Kingdom. Our members undertake a variety of essential roles including information technology, catering, administration, security and management in areas such as the coastguards, air traffic control, customs, benefits centres and tax offices. We also represent retired members.

PCS has trained over 250 Union Learning Representatives who offer access to lifelong learning opportunities to colleagues within the workplace. PCS Learning Reps are prominent in workplaces throughout the whole of Scotland.
